APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR FIRST YEAR ADMISSION

Application Requirements

You must:

- Have received or plan to receive a bachelor's degree or its equivalent before the first-year classes begin.
- Have taken or plan to take the Law School Admissions Test (LSAT) before the application deadline.
- Register with the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS).
- Complete and return this application with the application fee by April 1st. We encourage you to submit your application as early as October 1st.
- Submit two letters of recommendation, a personal statement and a resume or work history.

LSAT

The LSAT is generally given in June, October, December and February each year. You should plan to take the June, October or December test. If you take the February test, you will be eligible for consideration but will be at a disadvantage because your file will not be complete until late March. For entrance into the University of Minnesota Law School, your LSAT score will be considered current for four years.

You can get registration forms on-line at www.lsac.org. A sample of the test is in the LSAT & LSDAS Information Book and on the LSAC website.

LSDAS Report

The Law School is a participating member of the LSDAS. Register with LSDAS by visiting the LSAC website at www.lsac.org. Send LSDAS separate transcripts from every college or university you have attended, regardless of whether you earned credit or a degree. Sending a transcript from only the last institution attended is not sufficient, even if the transcript contains your grades from previous institutions.

If you are accepted, you will be required to submit a final official transcript directly to the University of Minnesota Law School showing the degree awarded. You must submit this transcript before the first day of school.

Application Form

You can complete and submit this form electronically through the LSAC electronic application service. If you are applying after the deadline, you will need to print the application and send a hard copy of all your materials directly to the University of Minnesota Law School at Office of Admissions, 290 Mondale Hall, 229 19th Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN 55455. If you are applying electronically and paying via credit card, you will electronically sign your application form. If you are applying electronically and paying by check or money order, you will need to print the Certification Letter and sign it instead of the application. You then send the Certification Letter and the fee directly to the Law School.

April 1st is the postmark deadline for filing an application. Exceptions to the deadline are made upon petition. Complete accuracy is a continuing requirement in all statements made on this application. Misrepresentation of application information is sufficient grounds for canceling admission or registration. We will notify you when your application is complete. Please feel free to contact us if you have not received completion notification within 30 days of submitting your application.

Application Fee

You must submit a $75 nonrefundable credentials examination fee with your application or Certification Letter. If you cannot afford to pay the fee, you can request a fee waiver by sending to the law school a completed application, a completed fee waiver form (available from the Law School Admissions Office) and, if possible, a letter from a financial aid officer verifying need.

Letters of Recommendation

Two letters of recommendation are required before your application will be considered. If possible, the letters should be from persons in an academic setting who can attest to your ability to enter a competitive professional program. If you have been out of college for more than two years, letters from an employer may be submitted instead. Although you are not restricted to two letters, your file will be considered complete when two letters have been received.

The Law School recommends that your letters be submitted through the LSAC Letter of Recommendation Service. This service is included in your LSDAS registration. Your letters will be copied and sent to us as received. To use this service, follow the instructions outlined on the LSAC website. If a letter writer wishes to write specifically about your qualifications for the University of Minnesota Law School, you can designate a specific letter to be sent to only our school through the electronic service or have the recommender send the letter directly to us. In this case, you will need the Law School's Letter of Recommendation form which can be printed from the law school's website.

Federal legislation gives students in attendance at the law school the right to inspect and review the letters of recommendation contained in their educational records unless the student or applicant waives that right and consents to the letters remaining confidential between the law school and the writers. You may waive the right to access provided by the legislation. Waiver of this right, however, is not required as a condition for admission to the University of Minnesota Law School or for receipt of financial aid or any other benefits.

JD Foreign Credential Assembly Service

The University of Minnesota Law School requires that your foreign transcripts be submitted through the LSAC JD Credential Assembly Service. If you completed any postsecondary work outside the US (including its territories) or Canada, you must use this service for the evaluation of your foreign transcripts. The one exception to this requirement is if you completed the foreign work through a study abroad, consortium, or exchange program sponsored by a US or Canadian institution, and the work is clearly indicated as such on the home campus transcript. This service is included in the LSDAS subscription fee. A Foreign Credential Evaluation will be completed by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO), which will be incorporated into your LSDAS report. Unless you have received a degree from an English speaking institution, you will need to submit a TOEFL score. In this case you must contact the Educational Testing Service (ETS) and request that your TOEFL score be sent to LSAC. LSAC's TOEFL code for the JD Credential Assembly Service is 0058. Your score will be included in the Foreign Credential Evaluation document that will be included in your LSDAS law school report.

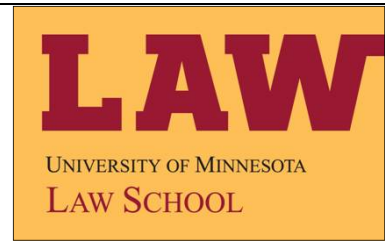

To use the JD CAS, log in to your online LSAC account and follow the instructions for registering for the service. Be sure to print out a Transcript Request Form for each institution and send it promptly to them. More time is usually required to receive foreign transcripts.

Questions about the JD Credential Assembly Service can be directed to LSAC at 215.968.1001, or LSACINFO@LSAC.org

For More Information

You are welcome to visit or write the Admissions Office if you have questions about the admission process or have special concerns. To schedule an appointment or have your questions answered, please call our office at 612.625.3487, or you can e-mail us at jdadmissions@umn.edu. You may also visit our website at www.law.umn.edu. The University of Minnesota is committed to the policy that all persons shall have equal access to its programs, facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, disability, public assistance status, veteran status, or sexual orientation.

APPLICATION FOR FIRST-YEAR ADMISSION

This is your application to the University of Minnesota Law School. Along with the application form, resume, personal statement, and letters of recommendation, the University of Minnesota Law School also requires applicants to register with the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS) which provides to the Law School a summary of an applicant's academic work, copies of college transcripts, LSAT score, and letters of recommendation. Register online at www.lsac.org or contact:

Personal Statement: The University of Minnesota's award-winning legal writing program recognizes that written communication is vital to the success of our graduates. All first-year students receive intensive individual instruction and writing credits are required during all three years at Minnesota. In making admissions decisions, Minnesota carefully considers the applicant's writing ability as demonstrated by the personal statement and other submissions.

This application requires that you present yourself in a personal statement. This essay may be on a subject of your choice and may be used to assess not only your writing skills, but your judgment, passions and analytical abilities. Your decision about what to present and how will assist us in evaluating you as a potential student and alum of the University of Minnesota Law School.

We suggest that your essay be at least two and not more than five typewritten pages long. No single spacing please. If there are ancillary matters that you wish to explain, such as breaks in your education or any other particular issue, please submit a separate essay or electronic attachment

Resume: Please include on a separate sheet (or electronic attachment) a detailed resume containing the following information:

- a. Work history during college and since college graduation.
- b. Extracurricular activities and community service, including the extent of your involvement.
- c. Other relevant information, including academic honors and prizes, hobbies, and other special interests, abilities, or accomplishments.

To the Applicant

The Law School recommends using the LSAC letters of recommendation service. If applicants use this service, this form is unnecessary. If, however, applicants wish to have references submitted directly to the University of Minnesota Law School, photocopy this form and give a copy to each person who writes a letter of recommendation. Each letter of recommendation becomes part of the admission file. Letters are used only for admission consideration and are not disclosed to any unauthorized individuals without the applicant's written consent. Complete the following waiver statement before giving the form to the person writing the letter.

I understand that I am not required to waive the right of access provided by the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 as a condition for admission to the Law School or for receipt of financial aid or other services and benefits.

- I hereby waive the right of access to this recommendation
- I do not waive the right of access to this recommendation

To the Recommendation Writer

We welcome relevant information not found elsewhere in the application materials. On a separate piece of paper, please provide the following information. First, state how long and in what connection you have known the applicant. Next, assess the applicant's abilities in the following areas: the ability to communicate orally and in writing, the ability to reason and analyze, the ability to imagine and create, the ability to exercise mature judgment, and the ability to relate to and work with other people. Second, compare the applicant's abilities with those of others persons you have know in circumstances similar to those of the applicant. Finally, make any additional comments you wish to about the applicant's character and academic promise.

Please return this form and your letter directly to:
